

Tokio Marine HCC – A&H Group Stop Loss Captives

HCC Life Insurance Company operating as Tokio Marine HCC – A&H Group

Tokio Marine HCC – A&H Group (TMHCC) continues to be a leader in stop loss captives. TMHCC utilizes our industry-leading stop loss underwriting to help our producer partners find a stop loss captive solution for their top-performing clients.

Captive Underwriting Expertise

TMHCC brings deep, experienced underwriting and pricing to stop loss captives. We understand how risk moves across each layer and work to put the right risk and the right premium in each layer to support long-term success.

We Know Our Role – and We Value Yours.

TMHCC focuses on what we do exceptionally well: underwriting, pricing and supporting stop loss captive risk. Just as importantly, we build strong partnerships with employers, brokers/consultants and captive managers. We believe each partner brings essential expertise – and the strongest captives are built when all four are aligned.
