

About Us

Our underwriters were among the first to develop dedicated Employment Practices Liability Insurance (EPLI) programs, and that expertise drives our solution-oriented approach today. We weren't just early to the EPLI space, we helped shape it. We understand the evolving risks businesses face - harassment, wage disputes, retaliation, and more - and designed coverage that keeps pace with a changing workforce.

We work to understand each client's unique employment risks and tailor solutions that align on needs. The result? Responsive, relevant EPLI coverage businesses can trust.
