Kidnap and Ransom Insurance Law Firms

Working with brokers, underwriters at Specialty Group, a member of Tokio Marine HCC, can design a tailored program that addresses the wide range of exposures facing law firms and the employees that represent them worldwide.

Why Law Firms are at Risk:

- Possession of privileged client information
- Perception of employees as high net worth individuals
- Globalization of activities reflecting exposure of clients
- Dealings with sensitive and controversial issues in a public forum

Law firms and the employees that represent them on a daily basis are frequently involved in contentious situations. The possession of information critical to the disposition of a court case adds another dimension for the exposure facing individuals involved in litigation. Thus, law firms must ensure they are protecting themselves and their employees against a range of malicious acts. A kidnap and ransom policy with Specialty Group is an important step in successfully achieving this goal.
