

TOKIO MARINE
HCC

Accident and Health

Tokio Marine HCC provides specialty underwriting products for the global accident and health insurance and reinsurance industries. Our team of underwriters, who are situated at the centre of the worldwide insurance market in the City of London, has decades of experience in tailoring bespoke products to meet the requirements of their client base.

Our range of products is highly diverse and provides cover for personal injury income, disability protection for self employed contractors, medical evacuation or repatriation for holidaymakers or business personnel who are injured or fall ill in territories where local treatment is deemed insufficient.

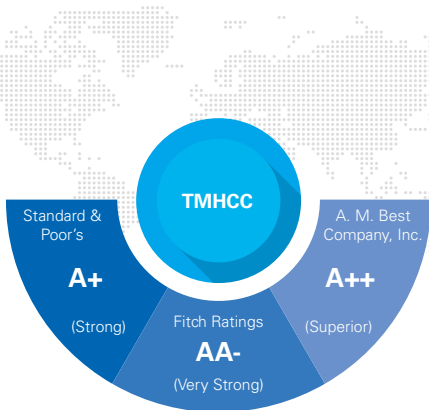

We also cover excess of loss reinsurance protection of localised or international insurance companies affording balance sheet protecting in the event of a catastrophic loss of life due to an unforeseen event such as an earthquake, tsunami or aviation disaster.

By developing strong relationships with specialist international brokers and the backing of our superior financial strength, we can offer the best solutions for clients.

Why Tokio Marine HCC?

- Direct access to a team of expert underwriters
- Bespoke products tailored to our clients' requirements
- Diverse client base ranging from individual self employed contractors to multinational corporations
- Domestic and international accident and health products offered on both a direct and reinsurance basis

Tokio Marine HCC's insurance companies are highly rated:
