Help when you need it most

Businesses today face a growing list of complex crises they must be prepared for both domestically and internationally. Political unrest. Kidnapping and extortion. Medical emergencies. Natural disasters. Active Shooter situations. The right expertise in handling these and other events are crucial to protect not just a company's reputation and operational continuity, but the very safety of its employees, guests, and customers.

Tokio Marine HCC, through its partnership with Unity Advisory Group and On Call International, can deliver the right analysis, response and post incident support to help when you need it most.

Crisis assistance

Tokio Marine HCC covers the financial consequences of a global crisis incident through its Crisis Management Insurance and partners with Unity / On Call to offer clients an effective and holistic solution. We believe it is not a question of 'if' but 'when' a crisis event will happen. As such, our approach to crisis assistance is:

Engagement

Benefiting from the combined experience of Unity / On Call, we offer every client bespoke crisis prevention training available in multiple languages. This is funded either in full or in part by your policy premium.

Case studies

Pre-incident services from Unity / On Call offers prevention training that includes advice and support for effective crisis management planning, expert assessment, review and recommendations for improved security measures, amongst others. However, should the worst happen, Unity / On Call can help every step of the way through incidents including but not limited to:

Multi-person kidnapping at an Insured's manufacturing plant

Our exclusive response consultants provide immediate telephone advice to verify and establish the facts of the case.

Consultants are deployed to the Insured's headquarters and the location of the incident. Unity Advisory Group assist with managing the key participants involved including, the victims' families, the kidnapers, local and home country authorities and the media.

Advice is provided for the negotiations and following the event post incident support is given. To conclude, a formal debrief and review will be conducted. The insurance policy responds by reimbursing the ransom costs, salaries of the victims, travel costs for the victim's family, rest and rehabilitation costs and legal liability settlements, amongst other insured losses.

Workplace violence active shooter situation at a shopping centre

A crisis management command post liaises with the authorities and supports media inquiries.

In the worst-case scenario, they help identify any victims and notify their families. The policy responds for all staff and customers in the entity's care, custody and control, on the insured's premises when the attack occurred. Relevant additional expenses include temporary security measures, rest and rehabilitation for staff, PR consultants and replacement salaries. Accidental death or dismemberment benefits are also included.

In addition to the support and advice of our exclusive response team, the policy also provides coverage for loss of earnings.

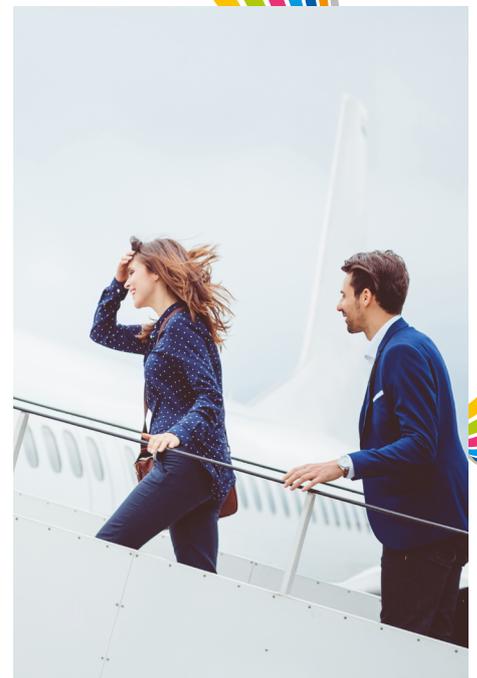

Security evacuation after a country's political situation deteriorated

Unity / On Call provides in-depth analysis based on live intelligence updates so the client can make an informed decision to ensure the safety of their staff and for business continuity.

Once it is established that a client is in imminent danger of bodily harm, Unity / On Call will then determine the safest way to get them out of harm's way and, ultimately, to a safe location outside the country.

Additionally, Unity / On Call can respond with on-the-ground security assistance, and provide a variety of transportation assets to facilitate the evacuation.

On top of the support and advice from our crisis response team, the policy covers reimbursement of travel costs, lost salaries and various additional expenses.
