

PMR 071

Noting the Interest of Clients

This endorsement applies in respect of the clients of the Insured (referred to for the purposes of this endorsement as the Client or Clients) listed below.

Insurers understand that any of these Clients could make a claim which could entitle the Insured to indemnity under this Policy.

If a claim occurs then Insurers will, upon a written request from the Insured, pay directly to the Client the amount of indemnity which Insurers agree the Insured is entitled to in respect of the claim under this Policy.

When Insurers make such a payment to a Client then the receipt of the Client shall be a valid discharge of all liability which Insurers have to the Insured to make any payment under this Policy for the claim.

This Clause does not restrict Insurers' rights:

- a) to defend or settle a claim or
- b) to pay to the Insured the Limit of indemnity in accordance with the Notification and Claims Conditions (and any Special Notification Conditions) contained in this Policy.

It is understood that the Clients to which this endorsement applies are not parties to this contract and have no rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any terms of this Policy.

The Clients are:

All other terms and conditions of this Policy remain unaltered.
