- 2.2 You may set discretionary Credit Limits up to the level stated in the Insurance Schedule.
- You must use information less than 12 months old that is updated at least every 12 months which can include status reports, good trading history or two written references from trade suppliers or contractors. You must consider all known information in making Your decision. Following a Notifiable Serious Event You must obtain new information that postdates the Notifiable Serious Event to support continued trading under the Discretionary Credit Limit or obtain a written Credit Limit from Us.
- Where We issue a nil Credit Limit and do not permit the use of the discretionary Credit Limit in relation to the Contractor, We will communicate this on the Credit Limit Notification and a reason code of "NODL" will apply.
- 2.3 We may withdraw or reduce any written Credit Limit given under this Policy at any time by Credit Limit Notification which will take immediate effect unless the Credit Limit relates to a Bound Contract. All Insured Debts up to the date of the Credit Limit Notification continue to be covered.

- 3.1 You may cover retentions and/or final account balances arising from Work Executed prior to the Policy Period but Certified in the Policy Period so long as You decide to do this within the first month of the Policy Period.

- 3.4 Where a Credit Limit is withdrawn or reduced Your cover for retentions and/or final account balances will extend to those Certified in this Policy Period. If You enter into a further Policy with Us at the end of this one Your cover for retentions and/or final account balances extends to those Certified within 12 months from the end of this Policy Period.

4. How You obtain cover for contracts with a Pay When Paid Clause

- 4.1 If the contract with Your Contractor contains a Pay When Paid Clause and You wish to cover the risk of not being paid because Your Contractor has not been paid by its Contractor due to the operation of this clause You must obtain from Us a Credit Limit on that Contractor.
